

2023 Respiratory Study Day

Respiratory Disease: Through the generations

Tuesday, 17th October 2023
Novotel Hotel, 70 Broad Street, Birmingham

A-Z useful information

Accommodation

Accommodation is not included as part of your delegate package and if required will need to be booked separately. Please contact the Novotel directly to arrange this. Please note: There are no special event rates or rooms reserved for the event, we encourage delegates to book early to avoid disappointment.

Cashpoint

The closest Cashpoint can be found within walking distance on Broad Street.

Cloakroom

The cloakroom will be located in the Bourneville Suite, where a coat rack will be available for our event only. Information and directions will be given at registration.

Disabled access and facilities

Disabled access is easiest via the main reception door located on ground level at the front of the building. However, if coming from the hotel car park access is a bit more complicated, one has to enter via the service lift from the underground parking and then go to the first floor, then across the corridor and down again in the main lift to the ground floor reception. Please do let us know if you have any disabled requirements and we will ensure someone is there to accompany you to registration or reception. Toilets with disabled access are found on the ground floor outside the main meeting room (Priestley/Darwin/Wedgwood Suite), just past registration.

Dress code

The dress code for the conference is business casual.

Evacuation procedures & first aid

Novotel have dedicated first aiders who will be available to run through fire and Evacuation procedures upon request. The evacuation area is located at the door to the car park to the side of the front door of the hotel. First Aid will be available on the day. Please advise a member of staff if needed.

Internet access

Free access to comprehensive Wi-Fi is available throughout the venue. Users should register on-site with the venue, details will be given upon arrival.

Medical emergencies

In an emergency, please inform a member of event staff and dial 999.

Mobile phones

Please note: All mobile phones should be switched to silent during the event presentations.
